ASIA PACIFIC

Q. Charlayne, after your third round, how do you feel?

CHARLAYNE SHIN LING CHONG: Feeling pretty much confident I would say because this will be my fifth round in this course including the practice round, so I'm a bit more familiar. Just that it's a bit hard to play with the winds because in Malaysia it's not this windy.

But then again, I enjoy it. I enjoyed today with my mates and, yeah, just my simple golf today.

Q. So with this wind, how do you adjust your game usually?

CHARLAYNE SHIN LING CHONG: Oh, just my caddie giving me inputs saying, okay, if the wind is right to left go more right. Apparently he knows my shots way better than I do although I try to adjust.

He told me not to adjust and play with what I have, go with the flow. So he and I kind of complete each other.

Q. Good break down. I love that. From round three, what do you reckon your strongest part of your game was today?

CHARLAYNE SHIN LING CHONG: I think it was my driver actually. So for the first day and the second day I wasn't doing well with my drivers, but today I was bombing it. Yeah, so I love that improvement.

Q. Is that something you can take towards tomorrow for the final day?

CHARLAYNE SHIN LING CHONG: Oh, I hope. I hope I get to hit my driver, just find fairways, find the greens, and hopefully roll some putts in, because I wasn't rolling my putts in today and yesterday as well.

So I'm hoping to roll more putts in and make more birdies.

Q. Last question: Any message for your fans, family and friends back home?

CHARLAYNE SHIN LING CHONG: Sure? Can I say in Malay (in Malaysian.).
