Women's Amateur
ASIA PACIFIC

Q. Tell us a little bit about round three. How did you feel out there?

GUNTAS SANDHU: It was pretty much the same as round one; I shot 1-under par. My putting was really good today. Hit some bad shots today, but, yeah, I'm happy with my round today.

Q. Awesome. And what do you think you can use from today that can help your score for tomorrow, for the last day?

GUNTAS SANDHU: Use the slopes planning more to hit more on the pin. Using the slopes; that's it.

Q. And do you got a pretty good feel for the course now? You know all the nooks and crannies of it, the dips and the rolls?

GUNTAS SANDHU: Yeah, it feels like my home course now.

Q. Awesome. How did you find the weather today? Was a little bit cold this morning and then a little bit windy, a little bit hotter in the afternoon.

GUNTAS SANDHU: It was windy plus really cold. I didn't remove my (indiscernible.) Like it was so cold today. It was really windy, so, yeah.

Q. Have you ever experienced a tournament like this when it's raining and sunny and windy and rainy?

GUNTAS SANDHU: Yeah, I experienced last time in the Asia Pacific. It was like this, like really windy, and, yeah, it was fun playing there.

Q. And you're the highest ranked Indian player on the leaderboard at the moment. How does that feel for you?

GUNTAS SANDHU: It feels great. Playing on such a big platform and just being top ranked as an Indian, it feels great.

Q. What's your goal by the end of tomorrow, after the final round?

GUNTAS SANDHU: To finish very good, like good (indiscernible) I am. Do my best out there and just enjoy the course as it's the last round here.

Q. Any messages for your fans, family and friends back home?

GUNTAS SANDHU: No. Nothing.

Q. Nothing?

GUNTAS SANDHU: No.
