Chiara Horder

Q. 2023 Women's Amateur Champion. How does that sound?

CHIARA HORDER: That sounds amazing. I can't believe it. I'm super happy. It's incredible.

Q. Not only that, you are going to four major championships, including the AIG Women's Open.

CHIARA HORDER: That gives me goosebumps. That's insane. These opportunities are incredible and I am so fortunate and so happy.

Q. You're now the third German in the last six years to claim that prize. How is that for a good run?

CHIARA HORDER: I know, that's amazing. They have been such an inspiration, and to follow up with them is just amazing, so good.

Q. You had the lead the entire day. Can you believe that, after four days golf, how did it feel to keep playing in this marathon match?

CHIARA HORDER: It's just insane. There's so many holes. We've played so many rounds the last couple days. It's been like 11 rounds, and then playing 36 today, it was exhausting. But I stayed in it and I enjoyed it, yeah.

Q. It must all be worth it. You must be really proud of your efforts on one of the biggest weeks and the biggest win of your young career.

CHIARA HORDER: It definitely is. It's so special. Yeah, I'm so happy.

Q. For everyone watching at home it must be special for them as well. Any messages for them?

CHIARA HORDER: Thank you for watching and thank you so much for supporting and all the texts and messages.
