

The G4D Open

Mixed Zone

Thursday, 11 May 2023

Tommaso Perrino

THE G4D

OPEN

unbelievable opportunity to do what I want to do before the accident and I enjoy enough my life now.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

Q. How pleased are you with your performance this morning?

TOMMASO PERRINO: This morning, I don't play well like yesterday but I was consistent to remain with the score, and I start very fine and then I have the opportunity to do some birdie but the putt never go inside. They go around of the hole.

But I remain with my mind focused and the score remain so good.

Q. How would you describe the challenge of the Duchess Course?

TOMMASO PERRINO: The Duchess I like so much because it is a course that good for me, my driver, I miss one driver in four days, and it is a course that if you place the driver, it is not too much difficult.

Today, I try to have a chance to come back and I was too much nervous and my body don't move like yesterday, and I don't have the opportunity to take the first and the second player. But the first place is not bad. I try to don't lose chance to lose shots.

Q. Was your target this week to win or was your target to be top 10 or something like that?

TOMMASO PERRINO: No, it's too difficult to win. Top five was okay for me and now I want to remain first. My game is very good in this period, and why not, you can do a great round tomorrow.

But we will see.

Q. And lots of people are watching this kind of event for the first time, so can I ask you a little bit about your disability?

TOMMASO PERRINO: Yeah, I broken my leg in an accident in 2001. I take an infection in the hospital that I don't know if it stay with me now or not, but my leg was blocked and I don't have muscle. But in 2019, I try EDGA family and I start again to play and for me, was

 . . . when all is said, we're done.®