

The G4D Open

Mixed Zone

Friday, 16 May 2025

Frederick

Brokfelt-Christiansen

Q. What a crazy round of golf. You had one par in the first nine holes, you started with three birdies, playing with Brendan. What was going through your head for the first couple hours today?

FREDERIK BROKFELT-CHRISTIANSEN: I don't know, it was very mental. I didn't really like it. I normally just like to make an easy par, get up in the green in two and just 2-putt around. But yeah, today wasn't a crazy day.

Q. Three birdies to start. You were leading the championship at that point. What were the keys to the success of those three holes?

FREDERIK BROKFELT-CHRISTIANSEN: I don't know, actually. The putts just went in, and yeah, everything matches.

Q. You talk about an up-and-down round, is that the nature of the course here, you have to be straight, threes trees every, where it quite fiery in the hot conditions?

FREDERIK BROKFELT-CHRISTIANSEN: You really have to be good off the tee. This second shot, yeah, it's not the most important thing but the short game, also. But it is always the short game you need to be good at.

Q. What was it like playing with Brendan? Have you played with him before?

FREDERIK BROKFELT-CHRISTIANSEN: No, actually. He's a sweet guy. Didn't really thought so much about it.

Q. Just focus on the golf?

FREDERIK BROKFELT-CHRISTIANSEN: Yeah, just focus on the golf.

Q. When you came in a few days ago, did you expect to be sitting in third place going into the final round? I know you've been playing well.

THE G4D

OPEN

FREDERIK BROKFELT-CHRISTIANSEN: Not really. I was talking about for fun at home, top five would be nice. Yeah, just came out here and saw something different.

Q. Can you win tomorrow?

FREDERIK BROKFELT-CHRISTIANSEN: Hope. So but I'll just go out and have fun.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports