Q. Keegan, looked like a dream start when Bryson DeChambeau hit that first tee shot at 7:10 a.m. this morning. Now there's a lot of blue on the board. How has the morning unfolded from your perspective?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Yeah, it's not exactly what we wanted, but we know the Ryder Cup is going to be ebbs and flows, and I've got a lot of faith in our boys. Let's see how this last match finishes up.

Q. A lot of golf left to play. What's the most important thing you want to see from your team this afternoon?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Well, we just had the President fly over in his Air Force One, so I've got a feeling things are going to turn here.
