Q. Just how would you evaluate the team's performance tonight?

MIGUEL NAVARRO: Good evening. I think that we played a very correct game tonight on every line. It was a mistake, an error that cost us the game but when we played out there, we played a good game. We played all together. We left everything out on the field. We didn't leave anything behind. We didn't hold back at all.

So now we continue to prepare so we can give our everything on the last game.

Q. Wonder how you felt about playing on the small pitch at Yankee Stadium, and also, you as a baseball fan, what was it like for you to play on the field at Yankee Stadium?

MIGUEL NAVARRO: For me it was a very nice sensation, a good feeling. It's a very historic stadium. But yeah, it was a little bit difficult. The field was a little bit small. But I mean, we can't have any excuses. We held the ball a lot and there is no excuses. I think the field was in as good condition, playing condition, as it could be for a soccer game.

Q. Just wondering, I know there's still one game left, how would you evaluate your 2021 season personally? How do you think you played this season?

MIGUEL NAVARRO:

A. I think that at first it was a little bit difficult for us to adapt to everything but I think what I've learned from this league is that you really need to kick off the season well and start off on the right foot so that you're not trying to row from behind and go forward.

So I evaluate, I think I've done well. I evaluate our performance as good. We are on our way up at the end of
