right now we need to have like a big talk and be honest with each other, and then stay positive and then work our ass off because it's not good enough, you know, from everyone, and especially we have to work our asses off for the team and for the club.

Q. This might be somewhat similar but I'm wondering if you have any thoughts on what it will take to beat Toronto in your next match on Saturday?

KACPER PRZYBYLKO: That's a very good question. First of all I think we need to analyze the game. We are going to do that in the next days and then we need to analyze Toronto, haven't watched many games from Toronto.

But like I said, mentally think and need to stay still positive because we are better than that, I know that for sure. It was a tough loss again, this one penalty call. Other than that, yeah, we will work on that.

Q. You guys got off to a pretty good start, really encouraging start and then things of course, have been not so much the same recently. What's the mood around the team and how do you guys fight the inevitable negativity when you wasn't won a league match?

KACPER PRZYBYLKO: What's the question again?

Q. Basically you guys got off to a great start. Things have kind of not been the same since. How do you guys fend off negativity when the results just haven't been there?

KACPER PRZYBYLKO: Just like I said, we need to turn over, we need to think and talk to each other and be very honest, I think that's the most important.

Right now it seems like everyone is defending himself. We are a team. We have to go through it together and it starts in the back and goes up to the front to me and to everyone but not good enough from everyone.

So we need to be first of all honest with each other. You know, get our confidence back because we don't -- because we really are not doing like that bad. So I think

ASAP . . . when all is said, we're done.®
