An Interview with:

Christopher Bell

Q. One happy Christopher Bell. Everything came together. What a car, what a call to come down pit road and take right sides. How did it unfold for you to be an All-Star winner, a million bucks richer?

CHRISTOPHER BELL: North Wilkesboro, how about that one? That right there is absolutely incredible. North Wilkesboro, best short track on the schedule.

Q. Are you saying you want a points race?

CHRISTOPHER BELL: Let's go.

Q. I have to ask you about these guys right here. It all started yesterday with that unbelievable stop, the two-tire stop. Almost hit your guy. You guys pulled it off and won the heat race. What do you have to say about the pit crew and what they're doing this year for you?

CHRISTOPHER BELL: Man, they're the best. There's nothing else to say. This sport can be so humbling because behind the car, behind the wheel, you're just a small part of success.

These boys right here, Adam Stevens on the pit box, all the mechanics, all the engineers that put this thing together, they're the big picture. I'm the guy that gets to sit up here and talk to you and take pictures, but without them, I'm nobody. I owe it all to these guys.
