An Interview with:

Chase Briscoe

Q. Chase is into the second round of the Cup Series Playoffs. I don't know what's more pressure, keeping Tyler Reddick behind you or delivering on the promise to get to Victory Lane.

CHASE BRISCOE: Yeah, man, there at the end, that was way harder than it needed to be. Man, just incredible, Bass Pro Shops. As a fan, I've watched Martin dominate a lot of races, and it was fun to be behind the wheel of it.

So cool to win two Southern 500s in a row. This is my favorite race of the year. Just because you race fans, every time we come here the place is sold out, the atmosphere here is like nowhere else.

A great way to start our Playoffs. That was a lot of fun.

Q. You led over 300 laps. You told us earlier this week, We haven't shown our potential yet. Does this show what this team is capable of doing?

CHASE BRISCOE: Yeah, I think this is definitely what we're capable of doing. We haven't been able to go out and dominate a race like that. The potential has been there from day one. Yeah, so thankful once again that Joe Gibbs, Toyota, Johnny Morris, J.P. Morris, to be able to run this red, white and blue Bass Pro Shops car into Victory Lane, it's the most American brand there is. To have the Star Spangled Banner on this is pretty cool.
