An Interview with:

Joey Logano

Q. You find yourself as a winner. Race got exciting at the end. How were you able to make the right moves?

JOEY LOGANO: Just a lot of teamwork all the way through. I think about the 22 team in particular. Nick Hensley, our gas man, did a fantastic job getting us in position out of pit road. Coleman Pressley up on the roof giving us great information. My teammate Ryan Blaney being committed and working together. It's nice when everything works out the way it's supposed to.

Just got a great team around me, a great Ford Mustang. Great to see this yellow and red Ford Mustang back in Victory Lane. A lot of partners have been sticking with us for a long period of time, and everyone back at the shop. It's a great place to start the season here.

Q. Looking for your second 500 win on Sunday. Did you learn what you needed to learn on this 22 car as it especially got down to the end of the race?

JOEY LOGANO: Yeah, I mean, there's definitely some things I want to work on, no doubt. It's always like that. I do think we have a strong race car. It's a fast race car obviously. We proved that tonight. That's a good piece. We have to have speed. We'll work on some handling pieces, but I feel like we're pretty close.
