Quick Quotes

Q. It's very disappointing not to finish 72 holes. I know you wanted the chance to defend. The forecast looks terrible. What was the day like today just waiting?

DANIELLE KANG: I just wanted to play 72 holes of golf. There is 18 holes of golf left out there. I played three of them. I got a 10-foot birdie putt on the third hole.

It's just -- I always look at golf tournament as 72 holes, so when we don't get to finish 72 holes -- and it's not the LPGA's fault, it's not anybody's fault. Sometimes we don't have enough resources. We know people are doing everything they can. The superintendants, everyone is working as hard as they can to get the golf course ready for us, and everyone is working really hard.

Sometimes it doesn't happen, and maybe one day we could have more opportunities when the golf courses could have more resources for us to be able to compete the way we should be able to compete. 72 holes is what I would really like for the future I guess.
