Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Frida Kinhult. Looked like it was going to be on an eagle on the last, but just fell short. 5-under today. Still really solid. Just walk me through the final round.

FRIDA KINHULT: It was very solid. Bogey-free rounds are always fun. I had a bet going on with my caddie, Jackie, that -- well, we been having it for a couple months. 5-under I get to know her age.

So, yeah, no, I had one, yeah, one thing to do on the last, need to birdie, but then gave myself a close eagle chance.

No, I'm happy with the round. Pretty solid. I think I really only had to save like one par out there, so it was pretty stress-free.

But, yeah, no, happy with the week. Obviously going to fall a couple short, but my game is definitely trending in the right direction so it's good fun.

I'm excited to be back in Portland in two weeks.

Q. I feel like a lot of young players come out and try to protect the final round, just make money, go home. Did you kind of attack today? Was that what made a difference? Obviously softer conditions.

FRIDA KINHULT: Yeah, yesterday I shot 4-under and I didn't move in the list, so I figured out, okay, if I need to have a chance I really need to shoot a low 60s score.

I mean, 65, I'm moving up a little bit. I needed more. We definitely had chances. I think left three, four putts short on the line today, which is a bummer right now when I fall a couple short.

No, it was a good week. Can't make everything out there either, so I'm happy with where my game is right now.
