Quick Quotes

Q. I got to ask you, your iron game really looked in control today. Has that been the difference from how you played this year to this week?

EMILY PEDERSEN: Yeah, I think so. I think my iron play has been good when it's been good. But it's been too inconsistent. I'm finally trying to find something now and I think that's been good this week.

Q. You've also added AimPoint recently. How has that helped your putting?

EMILY PEDERSEN: It's improved it a lot. I trust my lines a lot more. I read a lot better and I think my stats show that I've been putting better the last month or so.

Q. Now, Solheim Cup year. You played on a couple of Solheim Cups, but you're probably going to have to help yourself there. Is that part in the back of your mind tomorrow?

EMILY PEDERSEN: No, not tomorrow. I know I have to play well to be in the Solheim Cup. But I can only do what I can do. Like I'm trying to just focus on one job at a time. One shot at a time and then if I play well I'll be on the team. I know I have a lot to offer and I know I can win points for Europe, but if I'm there, I'm there. If I'm not, then that's okay.
