Q. Love to see you back out here playing again. I know it's been a bit of a journey for you. How has this journey been in terms of getting back out here and playing?

DANIELLE KANG: The journey has been very tough. It's actually unexplainable I think. People around me experience the hardship more, trying to keep me calm and back on track.

But it's been -- it's taken a village to get me back out here, and I'm proud to be standing here in front of you knowing that I'm contending tomorrow.

Q. That you are. Talking about contending messaging tomorrow what will you need to tomorrow on this golf course?

DANIELLE KANG: I've got to stop making mistakes here and there on the par-5s. I know that I have to capitalize on the par-5s. My wedges have been something that I've been trying to work on. It's a part of the game that I've lost for a while because of the whole turning issue, but I'm really trusting my wedges to be on point tomorrow and make some putts. I know I'm putting really well.
