Quick Quotes

Q. I'm here with Atthaya Thitikul. Great solid few days of golf. Coming in as a defending champion how >has this week been?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Yeah, it's always nice seeing my face out there on the board. You know, it's always nice to play as the defending champion.

Kind of different feeling-wise, but oh, well, it's good. It's always nice to be out here in Arkansas and also I love all the people here.

Q. Did you have a good host family?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: No, I don't have a host family, but I feel like when I go out all the volunteers or the fans, they always smiling, keep smiling on you and cheering you on, which is mean they are so nice and then so blessed that we playing out here in front of them. Just really thankful for them.

Q. Solid week of golf. What are you looking forward to in the next few weeks?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Hopefully I can hit my irons well and hole the putts on the hole more than this week.

But obviously I don't know what's going to happen next week because the course is totally different, and, yeah, hopefully all things is better than this week.
