Bianca Pagdanganan

Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Bianca Pagdanganan after her last round of the Walmart NW Arkansas Championship. Great round.

BIANCA PAGDANGANAN: Thank you.

Q. Two eagles. Can you walk us through the back nine especially.

BIANCA PAGDANGANAN: I don't know, like things just turned around. Like I knew I was hitting it good this week and hitting really, really great putts, but hole No. 10 they moved the tees up, so I hit a 3-wood off the tee and stuck it to five, six feet and made the eagle.

I just kind of tried to keep the momentum going.

I made a bogey on 12. It was just a series of bad shots I would say. I'm glad to save the bogey, but I don't know. I guess I just kept the mindset of there is so many more holes to go, so many birdies I can make. I just kind of stayed patient throughout the rest of the back nine.

Q. And you mentioned listening to music as you came out.

BIANCA PAGDANGANAN: Yeah.

Q. Maybe it was a little calming.

BIANCA PAGDANGANAN: It was.

Q. (Indiscernible.)

BIANCA PAGDANGANAN: Not really. I felt like -- I just felt like everything was moving so slow. I felt like I was making all these putts and how am I so stuck. That's what I thought.

So I was just talking to my caddie, listening to the music I hear on the course trying to figure out which song it was after they played the first note.

I think it was good that I had that I guess just to help myself stay present and just focus on what I had to do.

Q. Absolutely. And this is a great finish so far. Wait here to see where everything ends up, but what do you think this does for your confidence?

BIANCA PAGDANGANAN: Definitely a confidence booster. I feel like I've been putting in so much work the past couple weeks. Obviously it's really frustrating when you don't see good results.

So seeing how I played this week, it helps a lot. Just I think I can tell myself that my hard work is paying off and I'm hitting the shots I wanted and making all these putts.

It's just nice to see your hard work pay off for sure.
