Quick Quotes

Q. What a day for you. Talk to me how you're feeling coming off of that playoff?

CHEYENNE KNIGHT: Yeah, I mean, that's why you practice and why you play is to win, and getting beat by a birdie, I mean, Stacy hit three like really good, quality shots. I matched her for the most part. My putt just didn't break, but no, I'm really happy the way I hung in there today. The conditions were really tough.

It's all a learning experience. I kind of struggled starting the restart, so I feel really good about my game.

Q. What's the mentality or strategy heading into today?

CHEYENNE KNIGHT: I thought -- I said yesterday I thought even par or 1-under would go a really long way because of how tough the golf course is playing, and yeah, I just kind of thought I had everything to gain today and nothing to lose.

Q. How confident are you feeling heading into next week's major?

CHEYENNE KNIGHT: I'm feeling good. This is a good prep for links golf for next week, and I'm excited. So it was all great this week.
