Quick Quotes

Q. You came in today, you had four birdies total. How do you feel about your round and how would you compare the front nine to the back nine?

WICHANEE MEECHAI: I feel like the back nine is always harder than the front nine. But I just missed a lot of putts today, so that's why I make the bogey, but overall it's pretty good day for me. Out there, it's so windy and I had to stay patient.

Q. You've had some great finishes this season. You just recently came eighth in Ireland. How did that sort of prepare you for this week?

WICHANEE MEECHAI: I feel like this week, practise before the British Open, so I just want like to practise my low shot and then play with the wind and stuff like that. Yeah, I try to get ready for the British Open.

Q. And then lastly, you're among 11 Thai players, we have a new Thai Trust Golf, the Thai sponsor for this year. Does it feel special to be a part of that?

WICHANEE MEECHAI: Yeah, I feel like it's more like Thai Tour right now, like you see, meet a lot of Thai girls and can speak Thai with them. I feel so comfortable with them. I love it.
