Quick Quotes

Q. How was it today?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Today like the wind, it's not strong as yesterday, and then I have a pretty good opening round, but bogey, bogey, but it's fine, and I will take a positive away for tomorrow.

Q. How do you put those hiccups at the end there behind you? Across the three rounds, you've obviously done fantastically well?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: I had a really good shot. Hit it well. Putted well and I will get momentum going for tomorrow.

Q. You've been breaking records throughout your career so far. Obviously you're going to be allowing yourself the dream to win this maiden tournament here.

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Hopefully definitely you know like to be able to be in the LPGA when it's my dream, but like I said, every time I really think about that and then just go out there and it's only 18 hole left tomorrow. I will do my best for every single shot.

Q. Reminds me as we talked about of the Honda, LPGA Thai land, you and Ariya; what's it like to be back here in contention, what does it feel like to you?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: It feels amazing. It feels like another thing that I like, it feels challenging for me to, if I can make it tomorrow, it's going to be great definitely. But if not, it's still a good week and it's still you know like I'm trying to improve myself every single day and I try to be a better person and better golfer. Everything has been amazing and let's see the challenge tomorrow.
