Quick Quotes

Q. After your final round here at the ISPS Handa Women's Scottish Open, take us through the week and what you learned about your links game.

SEI YOUNG KIM: Especially today is a little rainy and windy. So first of all, I wasn't good, I didn't get the tee shots. So starting wasn't good. So it's not good vibes, the beginning holes.

Yeah, after this, I try to reset and on the back nine, a couple birdie. And I'm very disappointed with the last hole, I lost my tee shot ball.

Hopefully better next week.

Q. Speaking of next week, what do you take away from this week heading into AIG?

SEI YOUNG KIM: AIG, wind, how to control the wind. But I cannot handle it. But I just embrace the winds with the right club, pick the right club. That's the big deal.

So links course is kind of, especially around the greens, is also a little bit different. So more than chipping instead of pitching, like high shot. So yeah, it's fun to play.
