Quick Quotes

Q. All right, Jeongeun Lee6, you had a roller coaster round. Made the turn plus 2 but finished minus 2. What changed on the back nine for you?

JEONGEUN LEE6: Yeah, I played well in back nine. I focused on just rhythm, just rhythm. In front nine I think very fast so I didn't have a lot of birdie chance, but back nine I had a lot of birdie chances.

Yeah.

Q. And you made a lot of those birdies. A lot of hills on this golf course; very hard to walk. Has it been a challenge physically, this golf course?

JEONGEUN LEE6: This golf course, I think on the green, the green is too small and too fast, so I want to focus just speed and putting.

Yeah.

Q. Awesome. This is a beautiful spot. What's it like walking and seeing all the beautiful scenery around you?

JEONGEUN LEE6: I didn't see around. (Laughter.)

Q. Just focused on your game?

JEONGEUN LEE6: Yes, too busy. Sorry.

Q. Tomorrow, look at the scenery.

JEONGEUN LEE6: Okay. My homework?

Q. Yes. I love it. So other than your homework of looking at the scenery, what do you hope to improve on for tomorrow's second round?

JEONGEUN LEE6: I want to keep on the green more than today, and then just speed, yeah.

Q. And then last English question: Your event you that you played was the Women's British Open, the AIG Women's Open. What do you do during your down time?

JEONGEUN LEE6: Off weeks?

Q. Off weeks, yes.

JEONGEUN LEE6: I went my home. It's been a while, so I took a rest a lot and then see my friends and my parents. I had a lot of food. That's it.

Q. What did you eat that you missed?

JEONGEUN LEE6: Just Korean food and chicken.

Q. Yes. What's your favorite chicken restaurant?

JEONGEUN LEE6: Fried chicken. A lot of fried chicken restaurant.

Q. Do you have a favorite one? I know there's lots of them.

JEONGEUN LEE6: No.
