Quick Quotes

Q. I had an opportunity follow you a couple times now, and I think the world deserves to know a little bit about you. You came from China; you're on the LPGA tour now. How are you finding the experience of tour life?

RUONING YIN: I mean, tour life is a little bit stressful, but I think I start getting used to it. Just started enjoying.

Q. (Plane interference -- regarding Shanshan Feng.)

RUONING YIN: Yes. Shanshan (plane interference.)

She just, yeah, I think all the Chinese girl, we kind of look up to her.

Q. And what is it about golf that you love that makes you want to do this?

RUONING YIN: I just love to compete, and, I mean, compete with the best player in the world. That makes me happy I think.

Q. You were playing with Brooke Henderson today, one of the best players in the world. You stood your ground and played really well. Did you think that was going to happen? Are you proud of yourself for that?

RUONING YIN: Yes. I mean, Brooke is one of the best player in the world and I think I just can learn a lot of things from her, yeah.
