Quick Quotes

Q. Do you match the outfit every day?

ANNIE PARK: Well, so I only brought two colors, so this is kind of my neutral color. I think I brought a red one, so I'm going to be colorful, yeah.

Q. The reason we're talking to you is with your round today you're currently 99th in CME points.

ANNIE PARK: Okay.

Q. Are you keeping up?

ANNIE PARK: I am.

Q. And how frequently do you check?

ANNIE PARK: I started checking this week. I like realized that if you go on the LPGA website it tells you your projected. It was like, Wow, I could've -- how do I calculate the new system? It's nice this now there is that projected ranking so I know where I'm at.

I'm not going to lie, it's very stressful. I did take that two months off and I knew that I was going to be in this position. So I don't regret my decision, but at the same time, it is stressful.

I'm glad to be out here again and playing.

Q. When you took the two months off, was it stressful during that time or was it not stressful until you came back?

ANNIE PARK: It wasn't stressful during it. I actually really needed it. I think maybe post-COVID and lingering from all of that.

But I just needed to just recenter myself. Glad I took that two months off because I would've been burned out by now. I'm all ready, fresh, and ready to go.

Q. And what kind of mindset do you go into tomorrow? Just take one shot at a time?

ANNIE PARK: Well, I'm hitting it good so far. Just need to drop some putts, and that's been the last two days. So as long as those putts are dropping tomorrow, I think I'll be fine.

Q. What do you do after this week?

ANNIE PARK: After this week I go back to Dallas. That's where I'm based out of. Then going to, you know, play my heart out tomorrow and see what happens and go from there.
