Quick Quotes

Q. How do you feel your game was today after six birdies and a 4-under?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, I got a lot of birdies today, but I had a lot of miss putt today.

So, but, still pretty good. And I got six birdie and two bogeys.

But, yeah, wasn't expect I got six birdie today because I had a lot of -- I had not good condition for this week.

But it's pretty, and then top 10 right now, so that's fine.

Q. Not good conditions like yourself or...

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, myself, like body or swing.

Q. Okay. You felt a little out of sorts?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah.

Q. Do you feel like it improved and it's pretty good going into the season finale?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah. Yeah, because I got something in my swing on last day, today, so I'm looking forward next week. It's going to be better than this week. Cross fingers.

Q. What was it that you found in your swing today?

JIN YOUNG KO: Well, like my spine is little moved last three days, so I tried to keep the spine...

Q. Aligned?

JIN YOUNG KO: Aligned on my swing. So it was help a lot. And, yeah, feels better.

Q. Last one for you. Player the year honors are up for grab. How much would it mean to you to put together a good tournament and win that next week?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, I really want to get the Player of the Year, but I don't want to (indiscernible - plane) to play aggressive or every easy shots for next week.

Just I will keep doing it what I did to play last couple tournament. Yeah, if I'm playing good I can get in the -- get the Player of the Year. I got Player of the Year already two years ago, so, yeah. I don't have (indiscernible.)

Q. You can let somebody else --

JIN YOUNG KO: I know that feeling, if I got the Player of the Year.

Q. Yeah. Is it kind of exciting to be in the spot to win it?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, yeah, yeah, of course.
