Q. Thoroughly enjoyed watching you play golf today. Last year was a bit of a struggle for you. Is it harder to climb up to where you have been in the past a second time round?

JIN YOUNG KO: It's really hard. I mean, in last year I didn't play really well so. I wasn't play well much, but I didn't play good last year, so I, yeah, I thought my golf game is like done right now, it's going to be.

Like a lot of my friends around, they said, no, it's your time for next year. So they keep it up to me, and I practice really hard with my coach. And I mean, I'm really thanks to my Dave, because like many caddies, like they left if players doesn't playing really good, but he's not. So I feel really thankful to Dave.

Q. You just spend a bit of time in Korea.

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah.

Q. Do you feel refreshed after going home?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, of course. I'm really like happy to playing with my dog and then for walk, too. And I want to get some like space for myself like far away from the golf. So, yeah, it's really happy to back to Korea.
