Q. Here with Cheyenne Knight who put together a very nice round of golf today, round of 66. I have to ask first about the 18th hole. That was some par. Talk about that third shot and then making the par putt there.

CHEYENNE KNIGHT: Yeah, the third shot I was just trying to get it on the green. Everything slopes towards the water, so I was just trying to leave it short. And then chipping it into the hill, if it bounced up towards the hole, great. Just trying to really make a bogey and got fortunate making the par putt.

Q. What worked for you today that maybe hasn't worked during the bulk of the season? You're a much better player than where you've been finishing in events this year.

CHEYENNE KNIGHT: Yeah, I haven't had like the best year. I've switched swing coaches and he's really helped me a lot just trying get back on track. I struggled with the two-way miss most of the year.

Today I really drove the ball well, putted well. I hit a few loose approach shots, but I feel like my game is trending in the right direction.

Yeah, I think I need to win to get into the Tour Championship so nothing to lose really and looking forward to the off-season and really next season to put things together.

Q. Does that help, coming into an event where you're so focused on doing one particular thing to get into next week and have a chance to are a pot of cash?

CHEYENNE KNIGHT: Yeah, I think it's just kind of like you get in or you don't type of thing. I was in this position my rookie year. Yeah, just try and take it one day at a time.

This might be my last event this season, so just trying to
