Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Charley Hull. Still in the lead here after round three. Looks like you got off to a good start today. Had a solid round. Can you just tell us about the day?

CHARLEY HULL: Yeah, played pretty solid. I felt like I played well all day. I had a bit of an unlucky shot on the par three. Just kind of caught the down slope and just bounced on.

But, yeah, finishing in the dark wasn't that fun.

I wished they moved the tee times back a little bit or forward a little bit

Q. Any highlights out there of the day?

CHARLEY HULL: I just felt like I was pretty solid. Yeah, pretty solid all day. Shame to finish on a birdie, but it was a good up-and-down.

Q. With that up-and-down and how slick it is down there, what kind of shot were you trying to hit there that you executed really well?

CHARLEY HULL: I was hitting a 7-iron to the green, and usually my 7-iron in this weather is like 165, 107 club. The sun then dropped, and it was kind of dark. Then it got the wind up, and I hit a really good 7-iron in and hit it pure. It just come up short in the water. Tricky little up-and-down.

But my putt I could barely see the hole. I couldn't see the break or anything. So it was pretty dark to finish in.

Q. Does having a short memory help you get over that and get ready for tomorrow?

CHARLEY HULL: Yeah, it's just another shot. (Indiscernible).

Q. What was the atmosphere of the day like with you and Nelly?

CHARLEY HULL: Yeah, it was good. It was just another round of golf.

Q. I have to ask, what was the conversation like? Did you ask about the "Swimsuit Edition?"

CHARLEY HULL: I asked about those. General chitchat.
