Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Amy Yang after her final round at the CME Group Tour Championship. Defending champion and you had another really good finish here at CME. How would you describe the day and the week?

AMY YANG: It was overall a good week. I was very happy to come back to Naples, play the course, and today especially the final round I played really good, even though I had birdie on No. 18.

Yeah, I still think it was a great round. I can see my game is progressing and just really excited for next season, yeah.

Q. How gratifying is it? You won a major this year; finished here with a really good round at a tough event. How would you just describe the year and cap off the year here?

AMY YANG: Yeah, I had some ups and downs but I had major title that I've been dreaming of and just been working really hard.

I see good things coming so I'm just going to keep doing what I've been doing and just do my best.

Q. You say your game is in a really good place. What's next for and you what are you looking for next year?

AMY YANG: Next year, so, yeah, we'll just -- I know where my weaknesses are and I'm going to work on that over two months of this off-season.

Q. Any events you're particularly looking forward to, maybe defending KPMG?

AMY YANG: Oh, definitely, definitely.
