Q. Nelly, bogey-free round today to put yourself in the hunt heading into the final round here on Sunday. How would you assess your overall game today?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, it was good. Probably left a few out there, but overall very satisfied to back up the good round yesterday, too.

Q. Jeeno Thitikul looks poised to do take a pretty sizable lead into the final round. How do you approach tomorrow's final round?

NELLY KORDA: Just going to stick to my process, focus on myself, not really focus on what others are doing. And it's going to take a low one. It always takes a low one out here. So I'm just going focus on being present.

Q. You told me yesterday you were waiting to see some of the pin positions to determine how aggressive you could be out there. What do you make the setup you saw today?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, definitely a little bit more tucked, but they were gettable, too. The wind switched a little bit from the first two days, so 18 was a little bit downwind so I had a shorter club in.

So just overall just depends on the weather as well. But this golf course is usually pretty gettable where you see always really low scores winning.
