Quick Quotes

Q. Joining me here today after the third round the CME Group Tour Championship is Sei Young Kim. Another really strong round today. Can you just talk us through your round and what you're looking forward to with your final round tomorrow?

SEI YOUNG KIM: I mean, I couldn't make the lot of birdies, especially front nine. That's why a little bit disappointed.

But, yeah, I try to make the lot of birdie. When I make a birdie, Jeeno bounce back, keep the birdie each other. I'm like, wow, she's really good.

I mean, yeah, one more days tomorrow. Yeah, I try to do my best, yeah.

Q. You've been on Tour now, one of I would say a veteran at this point. How does it feel to see all this young talent and also you're still hanging in there and competing with them?

SEI YOUNG KIM: Yeah, she's a really young player but she's good potential and she's like really good play, and then she's on the way really good player.

So, yeah, I'm kind of really good plays with her on the course. It's good feed each other.

Yeah, I mean, she's putting is amazing. She made every hole. I was like, wow. (Laughter.)

Q. And then kind of with being a veteran out here, obviously the Tour Championship is something that people work towards all season long. Do you feel like this is a big event for you or do you feel like you've been here enough times that it feels like any other tournament?

SEI YOUNG KIM: I mean, this tournament is a lot of players waiting for since like beginning year. So, yeah, I mean, after the finish this tournament we feel like, ahh, like kind of little vacation.

But, yeah, we were waiting for long time since beginning season to play this week, so hopefully a lot of people want to strong finishes this week. And thank you to the CME who is charity sponsor the LPGA. Yeah, we just shows like -- we want to show good play on the course. That's the, yeah, what we can do to the thankful.
