Q. Alongside Nelly Korda. What a save there at the last. Can you take us through it? What did you see?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, I honestly hit my 9-iron really good from the fairway and drew maybe a little too much. I was being a little too aggressive there.

It started really blowing downwind for the chip, so I tried to hit it a little bit higher and perfectly went in thankful for a par.

Q. Kept you in a good position heading into the weekend currently just two back of the lead. How do you now approach the next two days?

NELLY KORDA: I think the weather is going to get a little worse so I'm going to go to the putting green, go to the range because wasn't hitting it the best today. Just going to figure some things out ahead of the weekend.

Q. You mentioned that weather. You are a Florida girl. You said you don't really enjoy playing in the cold. How do you prepare for the changes ahead?

NELLY KORDA: Lots of layers, hopefully where I can still swing. Hand warmers, gloves, I have everything with me so hopefully I can stay warm.
