Quick Quotes

Q. What a low day here on moving day. What do you think after this third round?

CARLOTA CIGANDA: Yeah, I started very good hitting some good shots, couple birdies at the beginning, and then I hit it pretty close. I think the course, it's been very soft, so I think if you are hitting some good shots to the pins the ball is stopping, so that was good for me.

4-under on the front, then birdie, birdie, 6-under, and it was the same. That bogey on 14, hit a bad driver left, but good bounce back with birdie on 15; hit it on the green and two-putted for three. And then I pulled it on the next one, so it was another bogey there.

Overall I think it's a great round and I'm happy where my game is at.

Q. I think after the double yesterday on the back nine you really put the pedal to the metal. Would you agree?

CARLOTA CIGANDA: Yeah, it's always tough making a double, especially on a course like this when they are making a lot of birdies. Sometimes it happens and you just have to keep going. I think that's what I tried to do today, and I'm pretty happy.

Q. What have you enjoyed most about your game this week in Thailand?

CARLOTA CIGANDA: I really enjoy this course. I think it's a great course for me because I can play a lot of the bunkers. I think it's more wide than last week so I can swing more freely, which I always like that.

Yeah, I always enjoy playing here. Par-5s, they are reachable. You don't go for it, that's fine. I think's a fun course.

Q. When you went out today was a 6-under, 7-under, 8-under round in the cards in your mind?

CARLOTA CIGANDA: I didn't have a number. I just wanted to go low, as low as I could. That's what I tried. I think, yeah, you can make birdies. There are some tough pins, like 18, it's a short Par-5 but it's hard to hit it up there. But you can make some birdies overall.

Q. One last day in Asia. What's on your mind as we head into the final day?

CARLOTA CIGANDA: Yeah, I think tomorrow I'm 11-under so I think I'm going to need a good 8- or 9-under. I think I shoot 9-under last time here on Sunday, so I'm going to try to do that tomorrow.
