Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Angel. 5-under round today. Talk about how was it for you out there today.

ANGEL YIN: Kind of disoriented. I think I was a little hot. First time walking 18 this week. First time walking 18 other than my tournament rounds in the beginning of the year, so I was a little tired.

But it's good to be back. I also haven't been back to Thailand in a while.

Q. What do you like to do most when you're in Thailand?

ANGEL YIN: Eat mango. It's always mango season when we come here. Mango is unbelievable. I think it's the best thing I've ever tasted anywhere.

Q. You played here before. What do you enjoy most about this tournament and this course?

ANGEL YIN: We always get a really good turnout so the fans are always showing up. We get a big variety. This week there is a lot of Japanese fans I see. You know, Thailand fans are always showing up. We get a really good variety of everybody and golf course is always in immaculate condition.

Putting green, the greens are unbelievable. Like you just want to go out and roll around it's is a nice. It's is a pure.

Q. You've been announced as a Girls Golf ambassador. What's it like to see young girls out here watching you in Asia?

ANGEL YIN: You know, it's great because I'm so -- I am pretty lucky to be a part of this program. It's like kind of like a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, especially since we play on LPGA, and feels empowering because I got my E.
