Quick Quotes

Okay, here with A Lim Kim after her third round at the T-Mobile Match Play presented by MGM Rewards. A nice 2-up victory over Amy Yang. Take us through the day today.

A LIM KIM: You know, we are really close friend, but still it was really good and good experience for me.

But take from my heart. Yeah, but it's cool, yeah.

Q. Is it tough to play match play against such a close friend? Do you balance the friendship versus being competitive and wanting to win?

A LIM KIM: Honestly any player are close my friend, but only one person, Amy Yang. She's special for me.

Yeah, but it was match play, so fun. It was fun.

Q. What do you guys maybe talk about while you're out there playing? Just anything?

A LIM KIM: We want to play dinner bet. So I won, I pay dinner. That's all.

Q. So you won; you have to pay for dinner?

A LIM KIM: Yeah.

Q. Where are you guys going?

A LIM KIM: Let see me see. (Indiscernible) Let me see.

Q. Advancing to the round of 16, how excited are you to keep playing some match play and keep hopefully winning?

A LIM KIM: Same thing. Not too special, yeah, focus on my target, that's all.

Q. What do you make of Shadow Creek as a golf course? A lot of the players think it's pretty tough out there. Do you agree with that?

A LIM KIM: Yeah, it was really tough because when I play in Korea there has same match play but different course type, so more make birdie important.

But this course is not, so more protective score and then pars are very important.
