Q. You guys were making the turn looking like you could potentially miss the cut. What turned it around?

IN GEE CHUN: I just said, Brooke, we have many holes left so we can make a lot of birdies during the back nine. Just, let's go. I said that.

Q. One pressing question -- well, there's two, actually. Who's the yin and who's the yang?

BROOKE HENDERSON: I think it's more how we're very different in our styles of play and like coming together and hopefully working in harmony, and we seemed to do that on the back nine.

Q. That was a much more thoughtful answer than we were coming up with. You can't expect us to believe that you had matching outfits with opposite --

IN GEE CHUN: Unfortunately I don't have a light colored tee shirt, so I talked to Brooke last night, Brooke, I'm going to wear pink, it's my best option.

And then maybe on the first tee, we thought -- like So Yeon and I are teamed and Brooke and Inbee are going to team.

BROOKE HENDERSON: It was pretty crazy.

Q. You're known for being obviously very aggressive. What will be the mindset going back into alternate-shot tomorrow?

BROOKE HENDERSON: I think we're a little bit more experienced. We are going to keep the same plan that we had. I'm going to play odds and In Gee even, and hopefully just make a few more birdies out there.

But I feel like we had it going sort of yesterday, but I think now we've really got it in gear and we're excited to play the
