Quick Quotes

Q. All right, I'm here with Yuka Saso after her third round at the Amundi Evian Championship. Seemed to be a bit of a battle out there today. Can you just talk us through what was going through your head?

YUKA SASO: Yeah, I started with bogey and then came with birdie. It was kind of up and down. I knew it was going to be a very tough day with rain and all that, going to be wet.

Yeah, I think I played pretty consistent without making any trouble, so I think that was good. And also playing with Patty and Celine was very fun.

Q. Speaking of Celine, your partner last week at Dow Great Lakes Bay Invitational. What was it like to play out there today? I know you support each other, but being paired together.

YUKA SASO: Yeah, like I said at Dow, it's an honor to play alongside Celine. She's a multiple LPGA winner. Today we're not partners, but playing together, I think it's just an awesome feeling to have. I learned something, too, with her game.

So I think I really enjoyed it.

Q. And her being a multiple LPGA winner, you could also become a multiple LPGA winner tomorrow. What are you looking forward to most?

YUKA SASO: I think to end the week in a good note. I don't know what's going to happen, but I think -- I mean, whatever happens it's going to be good. It's the last day, so just maybe, how do you say, make good memories I guess with players that I'll be playing with tomorrow and with the fans out here.
