Quick Quotes

Q. You had seven birdies today, Nos. 1, 3, 5, 9, 14, 17, 18. A lot of them on the scorecard. How good did it feel to end with a couple birdies coming down the stretch?

GEORGIA HALL: Yeah, it was really good. I managed to hit a really good shot into 17 and good up-and-down on 18, so good momentum going into tomorrow.

Q. Do you ever remember playing a par-73 course?

GEORGIA HALL: No, I had to check actually, double check when they said my score because I wasn't expecting that.

Q. What's the feel, the vibe like with the men out there? What was it like once you get into competition?

GEORGIA HALL: Yeah, I don't see much of them. We were waiting a little bit. But no, it was good.

Q. The course, how did it change maybe from the practice rounds to the actual competition?

GEORGIA HALL: I mean, it was raining yesterday in the pro-am, so I think it softened quite a bit, so the greens got a bit more receptive, which was good. But it played -- it still played pretty good.

Q. Massereene, what do you know about that course?

GEORGIA HALL: Nothing. I've played two holes, so I'm relying on my caddie tomorrow to guide me around.

Q. That's a safe bet, right?

GEORGIA HALL: Oh, yeah, definitely. It'll be fine. It'll be a bit of fun, as well, playing it blind, I think.

Q. Just looking at the leaderboard, what makes Galgorm scorable today? A lot of the low scores came from over here.

GEORGIA HALL: Oh, really? I think the par-5s are reachable, especially for me. First and third holes are reachable, 18 reachable. So I think mostly the par-5s are a little bit shorter. I'm not sure what the par-5s are like at Massereene, but the greens are rolling really good, as well, so I managed to hole some good putts.

Q. For you specifically is there some simplicity in going into a course where you don't necessarily need to maybe think too hard, you can just kind of rely on your caddie and hit a golf shot?

GEORGIA HALL: Yeah, I like to play pretty simple anyway, just kind of see the target and hit it and play pretty quickly, so I don't think nothing will change. Just get a good line and just go for it.
