Quick Quotes

Q. Bogey-free day, not too many birdies, but how important was it to limit the mistakes today to stay in the hunt?

CHELLA CHOI: I make pretty good shots but I didn't make birdie that much. But when I missed a shot I was really good up-and-down today, so I really play good today.

Q. How was the group? Did you know that Emma's boyfriend was caddying for Jen?

CHELLA CHOI: Yes, so I tell them when we started, no date here. I miss my boyfriend, so no date here. Anyway, Emma is pretty good girl, so she always like thanks to volunteers, so I trying to follow her. She made like a couple bogeys, but she always make great putts, so I really watching good play, watching her play.

Q. For you tomorrow, you're in the hunt. You're only one shot back. You won't play in the final group, you'll play two groups behind since there will be a men's group in between you guys. Do you think that's kind of nice to be able to get into the clubhouse early, maybe throw up a nice number and then wait a little bit?

CHELLA CHOI: Uh-huh, yeah, but doesn't matter final group or in front. I know my shot, and I really enjoy staying here. I feel like, I don't know why, I feel very good here, very excited to play, and no nervous because I feel like very event here. Like when I'm before shot, when I warm up, we practice together with men. I really enjoy watching them play and watching their game.

Q. So this is kind of like a home away from home almost?

CHELLA CHOI: Yes, I feel like. I try to feel very exciting to play because very challenging golf course here, so I'm trying to keep every shot before very focused on just shot by shot, so yeah.
