Daniel Hillier

Quick Quotes

DANIEL HILLIER: I felt pretty good out there today for the most part, and obviously a pretty poor end to the week, but that's the way things go sometimes, and I'm sure that I'll be in contention a lot more in the future, so just going to learn from it.

Q. What did you learn from it out there? Final group on a Sunday is where you want to be. You may not have tasted it -- I know you've won in New Zealand a couple times, maybe this is a level higher. What have you learnt?

DANIEL HILLIER: Yeah, it's one of those things, you're obviously going to feel nerves and all that. If you're in contention you want to win, and the adrenaline is going to be there, the nerves are going to be there.

I think just looking back on a couple of those shots near the end, just a little more focus on the process, I think, because I was getting a little bit ahead of myself I think towards the end, and obviously put me a little bit behind.

Apart from that it was a really good week, so yeah, I'm happy.

Q. You've got to tell me about the person on the bag.

DANIEL HILLIER: Yeah, my girlfriend Siobhan. She's not a golfer, so yeah, it's great to have her over here. It's been two and a half, three months on the road by myself, and yeah, to have her here now, and she's keeping me calm when I'm out there and it's great to have the company when I'm off the golf course, so yeah, really grateful for her support. She's given up a lot to be here, as well, so yeah, just absolutely love it, and I'm sure we'll have some more great memories along the way.
