Q. Fine afternoon; five birdies, the one bogey. You must be really happy with your round today.

RYANN O'TOOLE: You know, I stayed patient. I didn't strike it very good to be honest, but it's just I waited and I waited and had a few coming down the stretch which I think just was in dire times.

So I think work on a couple things on the range. I think I just need to get this wind swing out of me from today and yesterday, and then be ready to go tomorrow.

Q. How does it feel to be right in the mix entering the final round?

RYANN O'TOOLE: It's a great position to be. I'm really happy with where my game is trending, the confidence that's back, so I'm looking forward to tomorrow.

Q. We talked earlier in the week about spending a lot of the time in the UK. Seems you're very comfortable now, doesn't it?

RYANN O'TOOLE: I am. I'm getting very used to this weather: on and off rain, a lot of wind, a little cooler. Starting to feel like home.
