Q. How are you feeling after being back out here and how did you feel about your ball striking today?

ANGEL YIN: Ball striking today was not as I hoped, but I think I just never really calculated all the pressure that was going to be into it. Obviously going off first adds to that. So I think overall pretty good, but I have a great partner, and so that really helps. I mean, it helped me relax. There was a few holes where I got to pick up because I just was so confident in Yealimi, and Yealimi got it.

Q. You were down three through 6. How did you guys flip it?

ANGEL YIN: We actually were down multiple times.

YEALIMI NOH: Multiple times. Down on the front and then on the back. The front Angel really kept it together with three birdies. My putter was kind of cold, and she was keeping us in the game. And I mean, we just we played really well. Like, we made mistakes but on different holes, but just had a really good rhythm out there together.

Q. What were you thinking over that putt on 18?

ANGEL YIN: Well, I said, Don't leave it short, and I left it short, but...

YEALIMI NOH: Same. Remember that other hole? I left it short. I mean --

ANGEL YIN: It was, like, in the center too. It was just a straight putt. I was, like, just get it there, but a little short. But it was a great match. Lottie and Charley played unbelievable.

YEALIMI NOH: I mean, they made everything. They hit the flag stick.

ANGEL YIN: I thought she was going to make two eagles.

I was like, Oh, my God. Almost holed out.

YEALIMI NOH: It was crazy. Even that par-5 on 16 --

ANGEL YIN: Yeah, almost made eagle again.

YEALIMI NOH: Oh, my gosh.

ANGEL YIN: Incredible golf, like, everywhere.

YEALIMI NOH: Amazing, yeah.
