Q. Hard-fought match today. Can you just talk about what was going well for you.

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I made a couple of good putts. I was really trying to feed off the crowd today. It felt like the first day I was trying to calm down all the time and maybe I just needed to, yeah, feed off of them, and it was just, yeah, really nice.

Q. Huge crowd. A lot of chants for you specifically. What does it mean to play in Europe?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: It's amazing. I mean, I don't think I've ever experienced anything like it. It's so much fun and the crowds are amazing. I just want to do it again.
