Q. At the beginning of this year you were starting a journey on the LPGA Tour having had success in Europe. Can you believe now that you have won three points for Europe in the Solheim Cup come September?

NASTASIA NADAUD: Absolutely not. It's been insane that rise into, let's say, a year from then. It's just been, like, everything just happened so fast. Even, like, three, four months ago if someone told me I was playing the Solheim Cup, I would have said, Absolutely not. And now getting three points for Europe is just absolutely crazy. Got no words for that.

Q. What was the key to the victory in the singles match today?

NASTASIA NADAUD: I have to say that I tried to stick to my game plan as much as I could. Tried to not look what the other was doing. If they missed, obviously I would try to be a bit more sensible. But, yeah, overall my game was really solid all day. Didn't hole that many putts, but a bit more from 8 and 9 and then from them tried to get all the opportunities that I could take and I played very solid all day.

Q. Can you describe that feeling there of making that putt?

NASTASIA NADAUD: I must be really red. I was sweating and there was just a lot of emotions coming up. A bit overwhelmed, if I may say. But, yeah, I can't wait to see what the others are doing. Yeah, really, really happy.
