BMW Ladies Championship

Q. Solid day today. You had three out of four rounds this week bogey-free. Just overall, how happy are you with your play this week?

DA YEON LEE: I want to give myself a pat on the back for the bogey-free round, the three rounds that I had. I'm actually very satisfied with each round. And the second round, there is -- I guess I could have done better because I felt like I wasn't in my best form, and I couldn't keep my own pace.

But I learned from that in the second round, and I think I was able to bounce back from that in the third and fourth round. So I'm pretty proud about that too.

Q. Three consecutive bogeys at the beginning of your round, I think Nos. 2 through 4. What does a start like that do to kind of help get the momentum going for your round?

DA YEON LEE: I think our group started off really well with a lot of birdies, and I think the group momentum was there, if you will. And if you start off a round with consecutive birdies, obviously you can be really comfortable about your game. And I think that allowed me to remain calm and focused.

Q. Another top finish to add to your year. How will you use this win and this momentum to carry on to the end of the season?

DA YEON LEE: I'm going to take a break next week, and then we have two events left, and I think I'll try to prepare as much as I can in terms of the technical side and also just in terms of general stamina.

And I think if I just keep focused on my play, I can look forward to the results in the remaining two events.
