BMW Ladies Championship

THE MODERATOR: Here with hoe gee Kim. Solid week in front of your family, hometown crowd. Just evaluate your week.

HYO JOO KIM: So this is the first LPGA event held in my hometown, and although I didn't win, I think I did very well. So I'm pleased, and I'm especially pleased that I was able to show the other players and the world my hometown.

THE MODERATOR: It's obviously a really solid finish, good golf played out of you this week. What's the confidence level heading into the next three events?

HYO JOO KIM: So, first of all, it's been a while that I did really good with an LPGA Tour event, so I have gained a little bit more confidence.

However, with the remaining three events, the conditions, especially the weather is different from Korea and the U.S., so I think moving forward I have a little adjusting to do. But overall I think I can say that I've gained some confidence.

THE MODERATOR: Finally, what are some of the your goals heading into the next three events?

HYO JOO KIM: Doing better than this week (laughing).
