BMW Ladies Championship

Q. Here after your final round at the BMW Ladies Championship. Take us through the week. Looking like another top 10 finish for you on the Asia Swing.

HYE-JIN CHOI: So I'm pretty satisfied with last week and this week, as I mentioned earlier, I'm hitting my balls better and I think my putting is much better. So overall I'm really satisfied.

Q. How much covered have these last two weeks given you heading into the final stretch of the season.

HYE-JIN CHOI: Obviously compared to early this season, I wasn't feeling that confident. I wasn't shooting as well. My putting wasn't that sharp, and so under those conditions, it's difficult to score well.

But I worked on a couple things. I fixed a couple things and I worked on it, and now I feel more comfortable with many my game is at.

Q. To have a finish like did you here in Korea, any message to them to thank them for coming out to support?

HYE-JIN CHOI: So first of all, of course I'd like to thank them for cheering me on and coming out to see me. I think thanks to them, I was able to finish off a good round, and I love to have their support even when I'm attending an overseas event, and I hope that they continue to support all the Korean players on the LPGA.
