Quick Quotes

Q. Here after the final round of of the BMW Ladies Championship, awesome round today, 9-under, you really moved up the leaderboard. Can you talk about today's round?

NARIN AN: Today my shot and the playing was really better than before. So it was really exciting to play.

Q. There was just a ton of fans out here. I'm assuming you had a lot this week, too, as well. What was that like? How did that make you feel?

NARIN AN: They are really rooting me. It was so exciting and I got a lot more power from there. It was really about.

Q. And how did that make you feel, when you kept seeing more people come and cheering you on, do you think that helped you at all?

NARIN AN: Definitely. Definitely helped me. And then I could focus more.

Q. What was going through your head with all your birdies today? I think you had five in a row.

NARIN AN: I did, five in a row.

Q. What were you thinking?

NARIN AN: I just thought about shot-by-shot, and oh, maybe, from there to hit it like this, and yeah. Just did it.

Q. And I heard the last hole, too, you almost made it, almost six in a row. Were you thinking about that at all?

NARIN AN: It was a little bummer, but you know, I played well today. So I'm really happy.

Q. What was your thought going into today?

NARIN AN: Just I have my back problem this week. So I just keep my focus on my play, shot-by-shot.

Q. And to have so many fans out here this week, what does that mean for you? What does it mean for you to be playing in Korea this week?

NARIN AN: It's really fun. Like huge fans. I was really excited.

Q. Do you have any family?

NARIN AN: My father and mother.

Q. Had you been here before?

NARIN AN: No. First time.

Q. Do you like this course? Did you like it this week?

NARIN AN: Yeah, I like the course. It's really pretty. Like just next to the ocean. So you can hear the water sound. It was really good.

Q. And I'm assuming this is one of your lowest rounds out here, is it not?

NARIN AN: Probably, yes.

Q. And how does that feel to have such a low round this late in the season, too?

NARIN AN: It means I can play well. Like from now on, definitely. So I could get confidence.

Q. And do you have any plans for next week, anything fun?

NARIN AN: Probably just rest, I think, at home, and then enjoy my own bed.
