Quick Quotes

Q. Did you go to college and play college golf? If so, what school?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: I played college golf at UCLA. Started 2012 and graduated in 2016.

Q. Awesome. What's your career-best finish or biggest accomplishment in the golf world?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: Well, I guess my best finish on the LPGA was tied 18th. Struggled the last day, but was third to last. It was a cool experience.

Q. Awesome. And then what is your career-best round?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: Oh, my God. Probably when I won on the Epson Tour in 2018; back then it was Symetra. Shot 8-under the last day.

Q. Cool. And then why did you decide to pursue professional golf as a career, or why do you keep playing golf as a career?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: Well, I feel like I've been doing it for such a long time, and when I was going into my senior year at UCLA, UCLA had such a strong team when I was on the team and lots of my teammates were turning pro. I felt like I wanted to give it at least a try playing with all of them.

Q. And then what do you like to do outside of golf as a hobby or just to leave the rounds on the golf course and have fun outside of it?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: I do enjoy hiking. I do enjoy just hanging out with some friends. Wine. Bowling. I mean, bowling is great.

Q. I guess not career, but like a low bowling score you've done recently?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: Oh, God, I can't remember.

Q. I guess it's not low is it, it's high.

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: Yeah.

Q. What's your best bowling score that you can remember?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: You know what, I'm not there for necessarily the score. I'm just there to hang out and have a good time. It always is, so I don't really remember what my highest score is.

Q. And then if you weren't a professional golfer, what did you think you would be doing for a career?

LOUISE RIDDERSTROM: That is a very good question. I'm asking myself that a lot. I'd probably do something in sales or marketing. Probably work in the golf industry because that's where I have my experience, and I do enjoy golf.

So we'll see.
