Quick Quotes

Q. All right, I'm here with Min Lee after her second round at Q-Series. Solid round; 5-under today. What do you think stood out in your game compared to yesterday?

MIN LEE: Played different courses today. Today played Crossings. I think Crossings is playing a little bit easier than the other one and the greens are not as undulated, so I think my iron shots been pretty good today and yesterday, but I just make a little bit more putts today.

Q. Was there anything about this course you think suits your eye or maybe both of these courses?

MIN LEE: Both of the courses are great. I think Crossings has played the LPGA before and so I think that's one the reason we play on this side; more fair I think.

Q. We're at the end of the season here, end of the year. How would you describe your season as you got to this point?

MIN LEE: Well, I start my season pretty well and I had a lot confident starting this year, but I had a car accident when we play a tournament in Vegas. So I got injured, and after that kind of goes down a little bit, but I've been trying to get back to it.

Finally start to seeing a little bit better, and I've seen some different coaches just before the tournament, so I think it's great. Looking forward to it.

Q. A lot of resilience to get back from that, too, both mentally and physically. Is there anything kind of you prepared yourself for the week with all the emotions that go into this week, too, how you prepared yourself or any thoughts you had heading into the week.

MIN LEE: Well, I think --

Q. You have a smile on your face. I love it. I love it.

MIN LEE: The thing is, it's going to be very stressful, but me personally, when I'm feeling a lot of stress, I will just try to keep it very calm. I don't like a lot of ups and downs in the people that surrounding me, so I just told me friends, all the people around me, hey, I'm going to be very cool, so just be aware of that. And then don't make any noise because I hate it.

So I just go back home, turn on YouTube, and play the YouTube that I like, just chill and be on my own in my zone, in my Zen.

Q. Anything specifically on YouTube you like to watch that chills you out?

MIN LEE: There is a YouTuber that have seven cats, and personally I love cats, so I just keep watching it. Even though I'm not really watching it, just playing it and hearing what they're talking about and hearing the cats, so that feels really good.

Q. Do you have a cat?

MIN LEE: I have one.

Q. What's his name?

MIN LEE: Her name is Ka-hu. (Phonetic.)
